HAL Traxx™ Mobile

Managing Your Mobile Inventory Just Got Easier

Is your “warehouse” on wheels? Then you need simple, real-time tracking of material movements between your fixed business location and mobile locations such as service vehicles to improve efficiency, technician productivity and customer satisfaction. Or perhaps you need to track critical assets that you own and deploy to customer locations – assets such as medical devices, high-value electronics, or propane tanks.

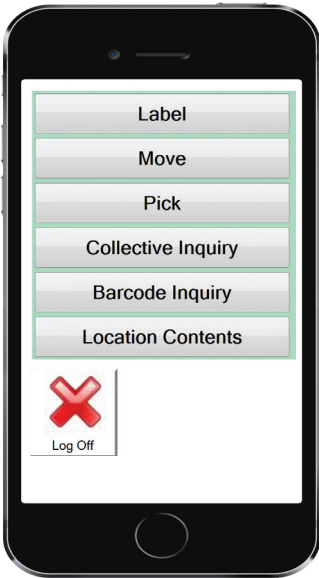

HAL Systems makes it easy to manage your business on the go with HAL Traxx™ Mobile – a proven application designed to enhance the HAL Traxx™ Inventory and HAL Traxx™ Assets solutions.

You don't have to be a big company with a big budget to have the most advanced technology for inventory and asset management. With HAL Systems, you can quickly implement high-value, low-cost solutions customized to meet your specific requirements and keep your business moving in the right direction.
